

À BOIRE

TO DRINK

Bang Bang's Indochine cuisine features fresh herbs, pungent sauces, fragrant spices and assured technique to create beautifully balanced dishes with hot, sour, salty, sweet and even bitter flavours. Matching wine to this requires some thought. Aromatic whites with fresh acidity and sometimes some sweetness work well. As do fruity and savoury reds without hard tannins or too much oak or alcohol. Riesling and Pinot Noir are obvious allies here but Gewurtz, Grenache and others have their place. Please try a range by the glass or carafe to see the interplay between the flavours and textures in your glass and on your plate. Cheers.
